Originator and Grower of Prize Winning

DAHLIAS

for 1936

Miss Parkersburg

An outstanding informal decorative Autumn Colored two year old seedling to be introduced in 1937.

Color and habits are similar to Jane Cowl but much richer in color and larger. It grew 12 by 8 in. deep without forcing.

Bush growth is ideal with extra good long stems, holding the giant blooms well up out of the bush facing on a 45%. It branches from the ground with canes four and five feet long.

Sensation and winner in the seedling class at the Ohio Valley Dahlia Association show 1935 at Cincinnati, Ohio.

1936 AND FORMER INTRODUCTIONS

AMERICA'S SWEETHEART—I. D. An immense variety which was one of the most outstanding 1935 introductions. Color is clear, pure yellow. Blooms very full and petals fall back to the stem, like a huge Chrysanthemum. The blooms are held almost on top of the absolutely stiff stems. Is an outstanding prize winner and can be grown to 12 inches across.Plants, $5.00

ADIRONDACK SUNSET—I. D. One of the most outstanding 1935 introductions and a very large bloom of beautiful form and great depth. One of the big prize winners you should grow. Color is a very spectacular blend of vivid scarlet, shading to canary yellow at base; tipped with gold, reverse deep gold. Long cane-like stems. Plants, $2.50

AMELIA EARHART—S. C. A very outstanding variety and one of the largest grown. Giant blooms are held erect above the foliage on strong stems. Fine autumn coloring of apricot buff. Grand Dahlia. Tuber,....$2.00; Plant,$1.00

ANN HARDING (Smith-Mad River Gardens) I. D. It is a pleasure to introduce this new beautiful and most satisfactory Dahlia, with a Certificate of Merit to its credit, and on the Mid West Honor Roll. Color a most pleasing shade of pink and gold, probably peach pink, with a very high center. Flowers 10x5 inches on the best of long stems. A rugged and vigorous grower, foliage the best.Plants, $5.00

- COL. LEWIS—(I. D.) Very large blooms on stout stems, color deep rose pink. A grand new dahlia.
Plants, $1.25
- ELIZABETH RETHBERG (Meussdorffer):—One of the outstanding Dahlias at the New York Botanical Gardens, and I believe the best Dahlia that this originator has sent to the East. The color is a clear pastel-pink, but rich and warm. The long wavy petals reach all the way back to the stem of the flower. The plant is a tall grower with the finely-formed blooms on long stems. Won as the Best Two-Year-Old Seedling at the 1933 California Flower Festival.
Plants, $5.00 Net

- EDNA FERBER—S. C. Coral gold. Tuber, .50
- EVA HUNT—I. D. Pure white. Plant, $1.25
- GRACE DOUGLAS—American Home Dahlia of distinction. Outstanding Dahlia at New York Botanical Gardens. Informal Decorative. It is a luscious, clear pink color, deeper pink at high center of flower, shading lighter towards tips of petals when matured, about the color of the pink pearl rhododendron, very lovely; immense size and great depth; easily grown to 12 inches and more by 8 inches deep. The petals curl and twist, enhancing the beauty of the flower. The bushes are about 4 feet high, excellent growth and very good stems; a splendid keeper as a cut flower, a very prolific bloomer, and very popular.
